

#11 Today's Values Give Me Direction

Why Values Matter Today

"Back of every life there are principles that have fashioned it."

— GEORGE H. LORIMER

My Values Function as...

1. an _____ .

2. a _____ .

President Abraham Lincoln said, "When I lay down the reins of this administration, I want to have one friend left, and that friend is inside myself."

3. my _____ .

Methods are many,

Values are few.

Methods always change,

Values never do.

Today Matters Is About My Values:

I value my attitude because it gives me possibilities.

I value my family because it gives me stability.

I value my health because it gives me strength.

I value my priorities because they give me focus.

I value my thinking because it gives me an advantage.

I value my commitment because it gives me tenacity.

I value my relationships because they give me fulfillment.

I value my finances because they give me options.

I value my faith because it give me peace.

I value my generosity because it gives me significance.

I value my values because they give me direction.

I value my growth because it gives me potential.

"Nice guys may appear to finish last, but usually they are running in a different race."
